ABOUT US

Founded by Sonia Singh in 2004. Astha Kiran has been working for 20 years. It has a comprehensive development approach to educate girl and empower women and girl. It is working towards the welfare of the society. Astha Kiran support children in the field of education, sports, arts and crafts, health, and drama society. Looking at the need of the society, We have expended our curriculum to not only academic education but to life skill education, sexual, and reproductive health and rights most importantly a journey from self to society.

LETTER FROM FOUNDER

Dear Well-Wishers of Astha Kiran,

I am happy that Astha Kiranas a family of children and team members has come this long. When we started in 2004 with a passion to teach children who otherwise were begging, we never thought we would come this far.

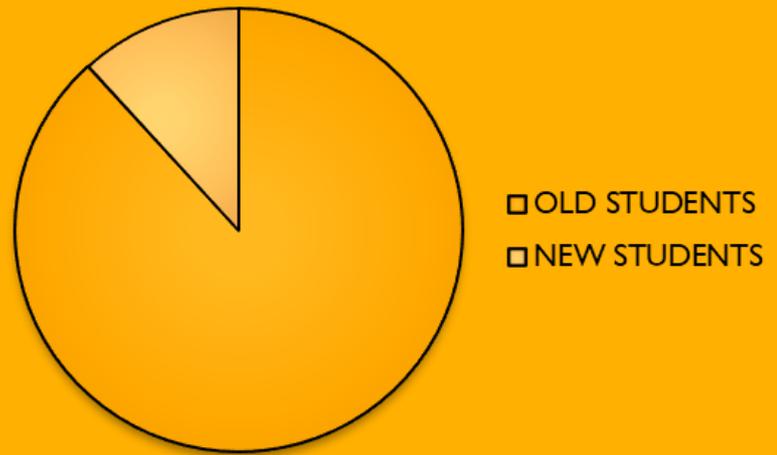

Our journey this year has been extremely challenging and rewarding with more than 180 children getting education under our umbrella during the covid time. It was definitely a high for a group who started teaching just 6-7 children under railway station. Everyday there is a new challenge for us and we are preparing ourselves for it.

We as a group practise high ethical standards whether is the team or whether it is the children and that is what we believe in. Our focus is not just to provide education to children but turn them into happy sensitive human beings.

This harshy year has also been a learning year where we developed systems, set up models to keep up the quality of delivery and to ensure that what we do is impactful. I am thankful to every wonderful individual who has been involved with this journey and who has made children what they are today. We hope and pray that we get the support and blessings of many more in this journey
